MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS WITHOUT PAYMENT OF COSTS OF PRINGING OF RECORD - AFFIDAVIT

APPELLANT, Olga Ogrod, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says in support of Motion for leave to Proceed without being required to repay costs of fees:

1. She is the Appellant and her Civil Rights are being violated under the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
2. She has reached poverty after twelve years of payment of legal costs. Appellant has paid all costs in lower court proceedings in multiple actions and is unable to pay costs of said cause nor give security for same.
3. I believe I am entitled to redress I seek in said cause.
4. The nature of said case is briefly stated. Appellant discriminated against because of her National Origin in a Discrimination in Housing Suit with a lease that is different. In an eviction, she had same removed to the U. S. District Court under Civil Rights Act of 1964. An Appeal has been timely filed in Removal Case, but the lower courts have continued actions and remanded record to state court instead of transmitting same to U. S. Supreme Court with multiple requests made.

(A) QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. This instant case is presently on Appeal under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 - U. S. Supreme Court 82-6720 28USC 1443(1) Removal. This instant case was granted a stay during Appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court if Appeal timely filed. Said Appeal timely filed with original mailing tolling the time. (see exhibit)
2. Is order made by a single judge of the U. S. District Court valid remanding record to state court instead of transmitting same to the U. S. Supreme Court where Civil Rights Appeal of 1964 is timely filed?
3. Does an Assistant Clerk in the U. S. Supreme Court have a right to rule on a Demand directed to the Justices of the U. S. Supreme Court? Does same clerk have authority to practice law while holding position as clerk?

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

(E) GROUND ON WHICH JURISDICTION OF COURT IS INVOKED

This case falls within the Civil Rights Act of 1964 with Removal per 1443 - Fair Housing Act of 1968 PL 90-284 (Discrimination in Housing - National Origin). Case is already on Appeal U.S. Supreme Court 82-6720 - timely filed on February 28, 1983 to stay mandate with request to transmit records.

The Civil Rights case of 1964 now on appeal 82-6720 filed within time to stay lower court proceedings has not done so and U. S. District Court and U. S. Court of Appeals have continued actions.

Order remanding record of April 18, 1983 is not valid as Appeal was timely filed on February 28, 1983.

(F) CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 (28 USC 1447-1443) (1) is unconstitutional as it does not seem to apply to people of all national origins. The Fair Housing Act of 1968 is unconstitutional as it does not apply to people of all national origins. The laws enacted by Congress do not seem to apply to all people.

The U. S. Supreme Court Rule PART VIII - Rule 28 -2 is not valid as it does not apply to all national origins.

Order made by a single judge remanding case to state court is in violation of all above stated and must be vacated, record transmitted to U. S. Supreme Court with a Recall of Mandate.

The Assistant Clerk does not have authority to practice law while

(G) CONCISE STATEMENT

Appellant has filed Appeal in Removal -TIMELY FILED ON Februzry 28, 1983. The lower courts do not have jurisdiction to continue actions during Appellants stay with Appeal timely filed. Order of April 18, 1983 remanding record to state court is unconstitutional and in violation of Appellant's Civil Rights under Civil Rights Act of 1964 - and made by a single judge. Appellant has made multiple formal requests for transmission of same to the U. S. Supreme Court.

(H) WHY QUESTIONS ARE SO SUBSTANTIAL

This involves the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Fair Housing Act of 1968 and the U. S. Supreme Court Rules - PART VIII -Rule 28-2 If any act or rule of court discriminates against a national origin it is unconstitutional.
